THINGS TO DO in

DOWNTOWN ANCHORAGE

in 4 hours OR LESS

Scenic, Historic, Full of Culture

Where else but Anchorage can a downtown visitor spend the morning strolling a museum, the afternoon salmon fishing, and the evening attending a Broadway production – all without needing a car? Thoroughly modern, yet wild enough to live up to Alaska's reputation as the Last Frontier, Anchorage is a scenic city chock full of recreation and cultural activities.

Appreciate Native Culture

Alaska's rich cultural heritage stems from the diversity of its many Native people. Authentic Alaska Native crafts are abundant in Anchorage museums, heritage centers and shops. Cultural events featuring storytelling, song and dance happen year-round.
